

This image shows a full page of primary-ruled paper. It features a solid vertical line on the left side, creating a margin. The rest of the page is filled with horizontal dotted lines, providing a guide for letter height and placement. There are no pre-written words or numbers on the page.